VIEWPOINT A TRIMBLE COMPANY

Breaking Down the Hidden Costs of Disconnected Construction Software.

How does the integrated ViewpointOne™ suite stack up to other construction management software solutions? When you start to add up all the hidden costs to patch together those standalone systems to meet your business needs, you might be surprised.

▶ Let's look a comparison of the features a typical mid-to large-sized contractor might need to effectively manage their operations:

With the ViewpointOne™ suite of integrated, cloud-based construction solutions:

With multiple, separate construction and business management software packages:

Maintaining multiple, non-integrated software solutions could be costing you 3X the amount of money as ViewpointOne! And, ViewpointOne's seamless integration means even less time and money wasted on administrative tasks to reconcile data between systems.

One Software Suite.
One Trusted Technology Vendor.
One Source of Real-Time Construction Data Truth.
That's the value of ViewpointOne.
